fering 50 Years! New 83 Years Old -Regains Strength and Laughs At "Uric Acid." Goes Back to Business-Feels Fine!

HOW IT HAPPENED

Work has been suspended on the international bridge at East Richford until next spring on account of the scarcity of labor.

Daniel C. Coffey of Pittsfield, Mass, came to White River Junction Nov. 1 to assume the position of chief clerk in the railway mail office, succeeding David F. Hunt, now in government service in the second of the scarcity of the second of the army over fifty years ago. Like many others, I spent money freely for so-called 'cures,' and I have read about 'Uric Acid' until I could almost taste it. I could not sleep nights or walk without pain; my hands were so sore and stiff I could not hold a pen. But now I am again in active business and can walk with ease or write all day with confort. Friends are surprised at the change."
